

UCLH FGM Clinics

UCLH serves a diverse population and offers specialist services to women and girls of all ages affected by FGM

UCLH Adult FGM service provides

Comprehensive specialist service by experienced staff

Referral to other services where clinically indicated

Assessment for pregnant women before childbirth

Counselling and psychological support in a sensitive setting

Information, training and professional support

UCLH Paediatric FGM Clinic

This specialist clinic provides support and clinical care to any child under the age of 18 affected by FGM.

For patients

To be referred to either of the above clinics, please ask your GP or Emergency Department clinician to refer you.

UCLH FGM Clinic staff

For doctors

Using a secure trust email, please send the patient's contact details and brief history to the email listed below.

Adult FGM Clinic, Clinic 3, EGA Wing, Lower Ground Floor,
25 Grafton Way, London WC1E 6BD

Telephone: 020 3447 9411

Referral: fgmsupport@uclh.nhs.uk

Referral and resources via Insight or the hospital webpages. For further information, contact fgm@vivalavulva.org